0nce my decision is made, however, I forget all, what may carry it through to success.

I love power; but I love it as an artist, as a n loves his violin. I love to draw sounds from it, harmony!

Midnight:

I am waiting impatiently for news from the Rh from Italy.

May 1st. (To Carnot.) Please send an intellige or engineer officer to General Suchet and ther General Massena. He will inform them that the] army is in full march for the passes of the Alps, a debouch in Piedmont on the llth of May.

2d. (To Berthier.) The enemy is far from sus your march. I have sure information that at and in Italy they are laughing at our Reserve arm think August will be here before it is ready, and t merely a levy of conscripts to fill the ranks of th of the Rhine.

3d. (To the Presidents of the Tribunals of 1 partment of the Seine.) While France was torn tions, justice was badly administered, as was indee table. For ten years have these conditions lasted; you to bring them to an end. You are never tc what party the man who demands justice belon vou are to weigh the rights of all men with severe
